

Impact CB
Lunch & Learn
Holiday Inn & Suites at
Amerstar
November 6th, 2009
Noon – 1:15

“It’s a Jungle Out There”
Leadership Styles & Behavioral Tendencies

Leslie Barnes – Director of Student-Athlete Development, Duke University.

Bio: After serving as Life Skills Coordinator at The Ohio State University since April 2003, Leslie Barnes joined the Duke Athletic Department in July 2006 as Director of Student-Athlete Development. Prior to arriving at OSU, Barnes was Life Skills Coordinator/Academic Counselor at Utah State, was Academic-Athletic Advisor & Coordinator of Student-Athlete Recognition at Arizona State and was the Assistant Academic Counselor/Intern at the University of Nebraska. Barnes is a native of Nebraska and obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Nebraska Wesleyan University. She also received her Masters of Education in Counseling/Psychological Services from Springfield College.

Cricket Lane – Assistant Director of Athletics for Student Athlete Development, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill

Bio: Cricket Lane is in her sixth year at UNC and serves as Assistant Director of Athletics for Student-Athlete Development. She was promoted to the position of Assistant A.D in January of 2009. Lane is responsible for Life Skills programming, which includes personal development, career development and community outreach, as well as the Carolina Leadership Academy program for first-year students, Carolina CREED. Lane earned her undergraduate degree in Psychology from George Mason. She then went on to earn a Masters in counseling from the University of Detroit and a PhD in counseling from Wayne State.

>>Impact CB is a Young Professional Networking Group. This event is open to anyone who has an interest in Networking and/or bettering their Communication/Leadership skills. $10 includes lunch and presentation.<<

Please RSVP to Judd Knispel @ judd.knispel.nyv5@statefarm.com or Mack LaRock @ mckayen.larock@usbank.com