

Business

Sunday, December 20, 1992

Heuer, Olderog promoted

From Staff Reports

James Heuer has been promoted to vice president-regional manager for Metropolitan Federal Bank.

Heuer, who has been vice president-office manager for Metropolitan in Council Bluffs, will be based in Omaha. He will supervise 20 Metropolitan office in western Iowa and eastern Nebraska.

Michelle Olderog will succeed him as vice president-office manager for the Council Bluffs office.

Heuer served as a teller, loan officer, branch coordinator, investor relations officer at First Federal Savings and Loan of Council Bluffs

Heuer

Olderog

before becoming vice president-director.

First Federal merged with Metropolitan in 1990 and has been in charge of the Council Bluffs office since then.

Olderog joined First Federal in 1977. She has been a teller, financial services representative, marketing representative and assistant vice president and office manager. For the past five years she has worked with INVEST brokerage services.

Heuer is a member of the State Historical Society of Iowa Board of Trustees and has served on the boards of the Council Bluffs Chamber of Commerce, YMCA, Historic General Dodge House and Visiting Nurse Association of Council Bluffs.

He is a member of the Council Bluffs Noon Rotary and Broadway United Methodist Church.

Olderog is treasurer of the Nishnabotna Girl Scouts Council, a member of the Chamber of Commerce Cee Bee Ambassadors and president-elect of Network CB. She is past president of the Gold Star Chapter of the American Business Women's Association and was named its woman of the year. She is also a graduate of Leadership Council Bluffs program.

Heuer and his wife, Chris, have three children.

Olderog and her husband, Timothy, have one child.

Firstar creates customer support centers